

NOTABLE TRAVELERS

Alla Campbell

"To get to all UN countries is a daunting task. My husband Charles has done a great job in helping me accomplish my goal. But to get to the really difficult countries Spiekermann came to the rescue. I never thought I could get to Syria and Yemen. Spiekermann made it happen. In 2019 we were two of the first 3 US citizens since the 2011 war to receive Syrian tourist visas.

Earlier that year they had completed all the arrangements (visas, guide, itinerary, etc.) for Libya, but the trip had to be cancelled due to civil war. I know they are on top of things and as soon as travel to Libya returns, Spiekermann will have me on my way. They will make my last country happen!"
